WHO SHE IS

GIUMS (Giu)

Visual artist and illustrator focused on character design for over 15 years, working both in Brazil and internationally, with a strong influence from geek culture, high fantasy, TCG and, above all, RPG.

She is currently building a community on Patreon while developing her original project YATHRA: a concept art book and high fantasy swashbuckling RPG setting book, embracing queer culture (LGBTQIAPN+) and dragons. Lots of dragons!

NATURAL FITS

Tabletop RPG & games

Designed for your project: characters, creatures and settings with visual consistency, ready to publish, serving publishers, game studios, TCG creators and independent community projects.

Art for books and games

Illustrations that help tell your story: covers, interior pages, cards and environment art.

From brief to final art

Original characters, creatures and complete reference sheets, with different angles, expressions, color palette, clothing and item details.

Content for brands

Specialized content on products and tools for artists, connecting brands to the audience.

Product reviews & tests

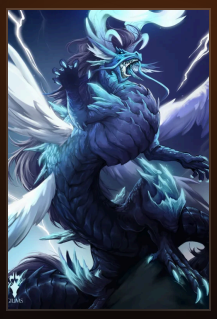

Reviews of tools and materials for digital and traditional art, including drawing tablets, pen displays, digital pens, software, paints, brushes and other art supplies, exploring quality, performance and user experience.

Art content & demonstrations

Production of illustrations, tutorials and demonstrations with digital and traditional products, highlighting their creative applications in promotional content.

AN ORIGINAL UNIVERSE

A lore & tabletop RPG worldbuilding project, three years in the making: a draconic world of conflict, LGBTQIAPN+ relationships and fantastic artifacts.

Supporters join through Patreon tiers, with physical items from the universe and original sketches of their own OCs.
